

From: British Wittgenstein Society [bws@herts.ac.uk]

Subject: Newsletter no.1

If you can't see the images, please click here

Home

4May 2008
BWS Newsletter Issue no.1

Contents

- Printer-friendly version
- Nota Bene
- Breaking news
- Bursary applications
- Publishers' discounts
- Executive committee
- The BWS website

Nota Bene

by Dr Danièle Moyal-Sharrock

The Third Wittgenstein: Inaugural Conference of the BWS

Bookings for the first annual conference are going well, but I note that many BWS members have not yet registered. Remember that numbers are limited and that the registration deadline is 15 May 2008, after which there will be a late booking fee of £25. We are extremely fortunate to have papers by a stellar cast of Wittgenstein scholars from around the world.

Note that Frank Cioffi has retitled his talk to: 'Making the unconscious conscious: Wittgenstein versus Freud'.

We have posted comprehensive details about how you can easily get to the de Havilland campus from London (by bus from Finchley Road, next to the Finchley Road Tube Station; by train from Kings Cross/St Pancras). You can download this information from the Conference page. Note that there will be plenty of free parking. Delegates should simply say at the gate that they are attending the Third Wittgenstein Philosophy Conference.

For those who are coming to the Conference Dinner, I am delighted to announce that Ashgate is offering a celebratory pre-dinner bucks fizz. Celebrating what? The establishment of the British Wittgenstein Society, of course. As the dinner is scheduled for 7:30, we will meet for drinks at 7 p.m. at the TalkBar (also in the Beales

About BWS

BWS is a British focal point for research and exchange of ideas among Wittgenstein scholars and students throughout the world.

This Newsletter will be sent exclusively to members of the BWS, on a regular basis, in order to draw their attention to updates on the website, or to share as yet unpublished news.

Hotel).

Breaking news

The Ludwig Wittgenstein Lecture Series

The BWS will be holding a Ludwig Wittgenstein Lecture Series -- annual or biannual, we're not yet sure. What is sure, however, is that Sir Anthony Kenny will be delivering the inaugural lecture. It is scheduled to take place on Friday 7 November at 5 p.m. and will be followed by a wine and cheese reception. Details will be posted on the website in good time. The topic of the lecture may be 'Wittgenstein and Aristotle' -- does it get any better?

Back to top

Bursary applications

Full application details for our 3-year bursary are now onsite. The bursary is in the amount of £12,940 annually, commencing in the academic year 2008-2009.

The deadline is 5 June 2008 - so go to the Bursary page if you are interested in applying.

Publishers' discounts

Publishers are offering discounts exclusive to BWS members on their Wittgenstein titles. Details are on the Recent Books page.

Oxford University Press is promoting an initial offer of 30% discount on a range of philosophy titles to members of the BWS. This offer is available exclusively online and valid until 31st June 2008 when the discount will be reduced to 20%.

Ashgate is offering a 25% discount on 16 of its titles. Follow the link on the Recent Books page of our website to download an order form. Members should quote SC2223 when ordering to receive the discount.

Back to top

BWS Executive Committee

Dr Danièle Moyal-Sharrock, President

Dr John Preston, Secretary
Department of Philosophy
The University of Reading
Whiteknights
Reading RG6 6AA

Professor Daniel D. Hutto,
Treasurer
University of Hertfordshire
Department of Philosophy
De Havilland Campus
Hatfield, Herts AL10 9AB

To unsubscribe or inquire about posting news please email bws@herts.ac.uk.

Back to top

The BWS website

Updates

New this month is a set of video clips found on YouTube. Check them out by clicking the video links menu button on the About Ludwig Wittgenstein page.

Or click on this link.

- The Recent Books page has expanded - latest additions are at the bottom of the page.
- Details of how to apply for the BWS bursary are now posted.
- If you downloaded the programme, check back from time to time for updates.

The BWS website is designed and maintained by Jane Dörner.

Back to top

If you can't see the images, please click here